Benefit Exclusions

Accident insurance covers many injuries that result from a covered event; though, the policy does have some exclusions. These are:

1. suicide, attempted suicide or any intentionally self-inflicted injury;
2. voluntary intake or use by any means of any drug, except when:
 - a. prescribed or administered by a physician, and
 - b. taken in accordance with the physician's instructions;
3. committing or attempting to commit a felony;
4. war or any act of war, declared or undeclared;
5. participation in a riot or insurrection of any kind;
6. military duty;
7. travel or flight in or on any aircraft, except:
 - a. as a fare-paying passenger on a regularly scheduled commercial flight; or
 - b. as a passenger, pilot or crew member in the group policyholder's aircraft while flying for the group policyholder's business, provided:
 - i. the aircraft has a valid U.S. airworthiness certificate (or foreign equivalent); and
 - ii. the pilot has a valid pilot's certificate with a nonstudent rating authorizing him to fly the aircraft;
8. cosmetic surgery;
9. an injury sustained while residing outside the U.S., U.S. territories, Canada or Mexico for more than 12 months;

This is not intended as a complete description of the insurance coverage offered. While benefit amounts stated in this summary are specific to your coverage, other items may summarize our standard product features and not the specific features of your coverage. Controlling provisions are provided in the policy, and this summary does not modify those provisions or the insurance in any way. This is not a binding contract. A policy will be made available to you that describes the benefits in greater detail. Refer to your certificate for your maximum benefit amounts. Should there be a difference between this summary and the policy, the policy will govern.

Benefits may vary by state, have limits on the number of services provided, or limit the time frame in which the services must be rendered. See your certificate booklet or policy for more information. This insurance product does not satisfy the requirement of minimum essential coverage under the Affordable Care Act.

Insurance products are issued by Lincoln Life & Annuity Company of New York, a Lincoln Financial Group® company. Limitations and exclusions apply.
